Description

Very beautiful serving console in solid blond walnut, 18th century - Louis XVI Four legs with soft lines joined by a crotch shelf. Gray marble top of exceptional quality, nicely nuanced with pink veins, whose unusual thickness is 35 m/m. The stamp on the top of the right front foot could not be deciphered. Central drawer with its lock and key. A piece of furniture with a soft and luminous patina whose design and elegance will shine in all types of interiors.
