Description

Oil on canvas by the painter Francis Verlinden, signed and dated 1974 and representing a naked woman from behind. The technique of his painting reflects a perfect mastery of the subject (very little material used). Canvas in very good condition, we recently gilded the frame because it was a little worn... other photos on request

Biography: Francis Verlinden is a Belgian painter, illustrator and draftsman, he was born in Ixelles (Brussels) in 1935, graduated Decorative Arts at Saint-Luc in Brussels. Trained for 5 years with the painter Paul G. Klein in Damme, which probably gave him this intuition and power of line, a "brush stroke" that many envy him, the artist paints with extreme speed and a fair line. Predilection for the figures of young women and indoor nudes, he painted erotic scenes probably
