

Large "jacqueline" Jug In Earthenware From Lille - Eighteenth Century

1 750 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Voir descriptif

Material : Earthenware

Height : 34cm

Description

Large anthropomorphic pitcher in Lille earthenware called "Jacqueline", covered, representing a woman in a flowered dress and polka-dot apron, sitting on a green mound.

The pewter frame is missing.

Restoration to the handle and a chip to the cover.

High: 34cm

Eighteenth century

Additional information and photos on request.

<https://bils-ceramiques.com>

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002