Description

Small Pedestal Table with rectangular top and cut corners. It offers a sumptuous Marquetry of various woods, with in particular in its center the representation of a couple of birds, with pyrography, posed on a leafy branch. This scene in Sycamore on a Walnut background is lined with a multitude of friezes with geometric shapes as varied as the colors that compose them. Indeed, the craftsman of the time knew how to skilfully play with the different colors of the woods used, thus forming, with finesse, a harmonious patchwork. This tray, with also inlaid edges, overlooks a band, itself embellished with a discreet border. It rests on a central shaft with generously turned curves and finished with four cut-out feet ensuring perfect stability for this Pedestal table. This base alternates black
