Description

Origin: Probably Belgian Style: Victorian - The Victorian era is known for its eclectic revival and interpretation of historical styles and the introduction of cross-cultural influences. Period: circa 1850 Material: Silver with red gold background Technique: Silver on gold. After all, centuries ago, jewelers believed that only a silver setting brought out the true beauty of a diamond. They covered the back of silver jewelry with a thin layer of gold to avoid staining clothing and skin. Diamond: 7 rose-cut diamonds set on a leaf for added sparkle. We do not have the weight of these diamonds, which is quite normal in our rose cut diamond business. Height 5.9cm
