Description

Chesterfield sofa with leather upholstery in Brown Fawn color, padded on the backrest, the armrests and the low crosspiece. It offers two comfortable seats materialized by two generous removable cushions with removable covers. This English Sofa rests on two Victorian front legs and two more sober and slightly Saber rear legs. Note the presence of a fifth foot, right, in the center, providing additional reinforcement. The underside has straps, which are in good condition. We will appreciate the very pronounced Vintage spirit of this Sofa in a typically British style. Although we can very well imagine it in the living room of a private house, it will harmonize perfectly in a Lounge bar, a chic Hotel Lobby or in a spacious business office.  Period: Late 19th century Perfect condition.
