Large life-size terracotta dog, resembling a pug with its corkscrew tail.

entirely in polychrome terracotta with express glass eyes.

the patina has slightly taken the wear of time but this dog from the end of the 19th century has come down to us in perfect condition.

the attitude is natural and the mouth expressive, a beautiful, ideal and easy-going companion.

probably German or Austrian work from the end of the 19th century.

a very beautiful life-size terracotta dog.
