Description

Hello, I offer you this very pretty painting from the end of the 17th-beginning of the 18th century. It is an oil on canvas representing a hunting scene with dogs and game. This painting has a nice naive side. This painting has no signature, but strangely resembles the works of Frans Snyders, in any case, in the taste and from the same period. It went into restoration by experts, "workshop of the gold thread" in Caen where the following works were carried out: - Study of the pictorial layer, with cleaning - Study of the surface layer - Cleaning of the canvas - Treatment of restorations - Laying of tension bands - Lightened satin varnish to recover original colors - A few touch-up points have been made The dimensions of this work without frame are: Height 36 cm, Width 54 cm This painting is available and
