Description

Nice pair of candelabras with three height-adjustable sconces. Resting on a circular plinth decorated with gadroons, our lights are fitted with a block made up of three lights sliding on a brass rod. The arms are decorated with acanthus leaves and terminated by gadrooned finets. A clamping system keeps each block at the desired height. The position of our three arms forms a semi-circle and thus allows these candelabra to be pressed against a wall or a shallow space.
