Description

Column in solid Walnut in the style of Louis XVI, composed of a barrel with generously turned ends. At two-thirds of the height, a Collar with Sculpted Decorations overhangs the narrowed and fluted part of the support. This stand is topped with a square top, the sobriety of which highlights the silver plate fixed to one of its edges, engraved with the inscription: 'Le Personnel des Services Municipaux de Saint Nazaire à Julien Servais, Témoignage d'estime and sympathy - 1901'. The set rests on a base of 27 cm by 27 cm, scalloped around its perimeter and modestly scalloped. This type of occasional furniture is essential when it comes to highlighting a plant, a light or a Statuette, while occupying moderate space.  Period: 1900 Perfect condition after restoration in our
