Description

This magnificent Boulle-style prayer table dates back to the Napoleon III period (19th century). It is a true masterpiece of French cabinetmaking, combining opulence and refinement.

The table features exquisite Boulle marquetry, a complex and labor-intensive technique involving the assembly of tortoiseshell and brass plates to create geometric and floral patterns of great elegance. The decor is enhanced by finely chiseled gilded bronzes, highlighting the intricate details of the marquetry.

The prayer table is surmounted by an ornate entablature, adorned with sculpted figures, likely depicting saints or religious symbols. The ensemble rests on a solid and ornate base, harmoniously completing the composition. This prayer table is in exceptional condition,
