Description

Small Bureau à Tier in solid Walnut and veneer from the Louis Philippe period. The upper part consists of a narrow shelf furnished on three of its sides with a gallery cut out with spindles. It is supported at the front by two turned and molded columns and two straight uprights at the rear. Below, this Desk offers a space composed of four drawers, those at the top equipped with wooden pull buttons, those at the bottom with locks and their respective keys. We will appreciate their facades with pronounced and symmetrical patterns. The work area is covered with current Lamb leather, embellished with a central Vignette and bordered with Golden friezes and on a hard background. This tray has the particularity of being sliding, thus making it possible to go from 27 to 41.5 cm in depth. On the right side, this
