Description

Set of two Chairs with structures in solid Blond Cherry and belts in Rosewood Veneer. The backrests and seats benefit from an artisanal Cannage in very good condition, made up of Rattan strips in nuanced shades. The first, high, are rounded at the top and perforated at the bottom. They are bordered by a marquetry frieze in Rosewood, itself underlined by Lemon nets. We find this same Decor on the strip located under the seats. The latter owe their reliability - in particular - to their squareness, and their horseshoe shape offers a generous and comfortable seating surface. It will also be specified that they are molded around their edges. Each of these seats rests on two turned front legs, embellished with brass rosettes in the upper part and finished with sabots of the same alloy. The
