Description

Large oil on canvas representing a procession in Brittany, large and beautiful subject of fine craftsmanship, with many details and characters. The work is signed lower right by Mareels for Maurice Mareels 1893 1976. The canvas is presented unframed in its old varnish, the varnish will be cleaned in our workshop. Interesting subject due to the composition and the bias of the artist, multitude of women in the lower part of the canvas forming a curve coming from the boats and the fathers and choir children in the upper part of the canvas. Beautiful painting, very decorative.
