Description

Silver and enamel cigarette case, early 20th century German Art Deco workThe box, in solid silver, is rectangular in shape with chamfered edges. The lid is decorated with a double net of blue enamel interrupted by "crossings" of white enamel.Mounted on a spring hinge, the box opens with a push button on the side.The interior is engraved with a dedication in German "Zur frdl. Erinnerung // an die Direction // Stosh-Sarrasani // Weihn 1918" meaning "In friendly remembrance of the Stosh-Sarrasani management Christmas 1918".It is most likely a gift offered to a member of the Stosh-Sarrasani circus, very well known in Germany, and particularly in Dresden at the beginning of the 20th century.The case is hallmarked:. A crescent moon and a crown, German hallmark for sterling silver. 900 for silver
