Description

This large oil on panel (agglomerate) offers us an evocation of the folklore and traditions of the Basque Country: we can notably recognize the glass dance, the jalmalzain dancer wearing his miter, the fandango dancers, as well as the Basque pelota player with his chistera. and this, under the gaze of an ancestor wearing the traditional beret. This very decorative, modernist painting is signed lower left Louis Chareyre (1917-1995), painter from Limousin.
