Description

Walnut and rosewood central desk, 3rd quarter of the 18th century. (papal state).

Entirely veneered in rosewood, this precious wood offers a visual effect of exceptional quality in an alternation of light and dark veins.

The top slides like a kind of secret and protects the internal flaps. The piece of furniture has 3 drawers at the front and at the back it offers a clever set of laminations which give the illusion of having false drawers.

Its dimensions in cm are: 133.5 x 75.5 x 84 high
The desk is in excellent structural condition and has an exceptional patina.

The price will include the shellac polishing that this type of furniture requires.
