Description

Pair of paintings made by artist Luigi Scarpa Croce (1901-1967 Venice), around the late 1950s, both having as their subject two landscapes of the Veneto hills. Both works are done in oil, one on a wooden tablet, the other on a compressed cardboard support. In both paintings the colors are bright, nittide and luminous, where vibrant colors and mellow brushstrokes of different shades of green predominate. Both paintings are signed on the front, one on the lower left, one on the lower right.
