Description

French work, Art Deco period Pair of gilded wooden armchairs by the famous designer Paul Follot, rare and original of these forms of design for this high quality work. The detached uprights tapered and carved with grooves, fully reupholstered according to the rules of the Art with period fabric and high quality trimmings. Upholsterer from father to son since 1880, entirely period woodwork that has not undergone any restorations. Original gilding with a few tiny wrinkles from time.
