

Medallion Of Napoleon Mounted On Horn Box. Early 19th Century.

600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Gilding

Diameter : 82 mm

Height : 25 mm

Description

Medallion representing Napoleon Bonaparte wearing the laurel wreath. The emperor is represented still young. This must be one of the earliest depictions of the emperor. On the edge is inscribed "Napoleon the great Emperor and King", the medallion is mounted on a horn box. The medallion is in bronze or gilded copper with a beautiful slightly greenish mercury gilding, it is framed by a strapping of pink metal which must be pink gold. Good condition, no restoration. 82 x 25mm

Dealer

Conservatoire Sakura

Asian Art

Mobile : 0607111583

16 catherine segurane

Nice 06300