In 1963, he executed two stained glass windows for the college of higher education in Chalon-sur-Saône. During his travels in Algeria, Morocco, Senegal, he painted from nature. He illustrated with lithographs La Garlande des dunes by Verhaeren, Les Châteaux de sable by Armand Lanoux, Les Poèmes saturniens by Verlaine.

Essentially a painter of landscapes, his skilful writing to the point of virtuosity recreates light and atmosphere, sometimes reminiscent of Vlaminck in rural drama.
