Description

This elegant Louis XV-style commode is an exceptional example of 18th-century-inspired craftsmanship. Constructed from fine wood, likely mahogany, it features a luxurious white marble top that complements its rich, warm tones. The piece is adorned with six spacious drawers and two lockable cabinets, offering both practicality and beauty.

The commode is richly decorated with intricate carvings and detailed marquetry. The design includes iconic Rococo motifs such as rocaille, shells, acanthus leaves, flowers, and birds, reflecting the period's love for naturalistic and ornamental themes. The curved legs end in delicate feet, enhancing the commode's graceful and refined silhouette.

The hardware and handles are crafted from brass,
