Description

Large Bench in solid Oak, with Mitred High Backrest embellished with a row of five projecting panels with slightly molded edges. The solid sides of this Seat, forming armrests, are also paneled. At the front, two amounts with rounded tops materialize the location of the hands, and recall the composition of the backrest. The seat, which can accommodate up to four people, is deep and overlooks a wide oak crosspiece. This Seat rests on four straight legs, although the front ones are very slightly hollowed out. The visible mortises reinforce the Authenticity of this Quadricentenary Bench, which will find its place in the Rustic environment of a Property or a Castle at the height of its excess. You can choose - or not - to add Cushions to this Seat, thus providing Comfort and Warmth without
