Description

Chest of drawers in wood veneer, Transition style. Its Top is a Sumptuous 3cm thick Marble, in the Sienna tone with White veining. It presents a Detachment marrying the Movement of the Dresser, with Projection and Gorge on its Perimeter. The central part of the Facade of the Projecting Commode is built with two large Drawers with Hidden Traverse of the same depth, the interior of which is in Oak. These two Drawers are provided with a Bronze Lock Entry, the first being dummy, only the lower one equipped with its Key locks the two openings. They are provided on each side with Bronze Pull Handles. These Drawers, made of Rosewood and Violette Wood arranged in Butterfly Wings, have Greek-style framing nets. The sides of this piece of furniture are not to be neglected either because the wood is arranged in the same way as on the front. This chest of drawers is supported by four legs, the front ones of which have a cutaway and end in a doe foot. There is a Bronze Chute in the upper part as well as on the bump of the Foot, and a Sabot in the lower part. The cutaway is garnished with two nets wrapped in light wood and amaranth. Note the inscription "Le Grand Trianon" present under the marble as well as a Stamp on the wood under the marble representing a golden Fleur de Lys. This Elegant Dresser with reasonable dimensions will invite itself into an Interior arranged with Taste, and where the Quality of its Marquetry will be noticed.
