Description

Set of two Chairs with structures in solid Macassar Ebony, Indonesian Precious Wood rather reserved for high-end furniture. The fan-shaped backrests, by definition flared, as well as the generously sized seats, are covered in original Red Leather. This coating, which bears the traces of its century of history, has a very present Golden Nail finish. Each of these Chairs rests on four modestly narrowed legs, straight at the front and slightly Saber at the back. This Pair of Seats benefits from a pretty Exotic Wood, with Black veining on a lighter background, characteristic of Ebony in general and that of Macassar in particular. We will also remember the Affirmed Colors of this Comfortable set, skilfully underlined by Traditional and Artisanal Studding.  Period: 1930 Perfect
