Description

Robert Picault (1919-2000). The Musical Faun.
Tin earthenware decorated with copper oxide and wax reserves. The shape of this dish is similar to a work called: "the dish with the bird" inv 05-509114 present at the Museum of Sèvres. Donation of Pierre Ennès in 2003.

The gestures of the drawing like a sketch, the enamels as well as the use of the reserve with wax suggests that the two works date from the same period. Moreover it is very interesting to note that on a series of contact sheets and more precisely a set of 6 photographs (...) for further information you can use the link present in the text.
