Description

Royal Antique proudly presents this magnificent serpentine inlaid side cabinet, a true testament to the innovative artistry and opulence of the late 19th-century Greek Revival style. Designed by the celebrated French-born interior designer Alexander Roux, this cabinet masterfully combines antique style motifs with the refined tastes of its contemporary era. Exquisite Materials and Craftsmanship: Lustrous Wood Inlays: The cabinet is crafted primarily from solid mahogany, but is sumptuously ornamented with intricate marquetry using contrasting light wood materials such as violet wood or lemon tree. This creates a vibrant visual texture and a feeling of closeness and friendliness towards nature. The background marquetry features a classic lattice pattern that dominates most of the cabinet's surface, lending an elegant geometric complexity. Ornate Gilt Bronze Embellishments: The cabinet is richly adorned with finely chased gilt bronze mounts and intricate patterning that lines the edges of the furniture, adding a touch of unparalleled luxury. Figural Mounts: On both sides of the cabinet, striking images of women, likely in the form of caryatids or herms, are seamlessly integrated into the design, merging with the gilded bronze frames that enhance the front panels. Classical Legs: The four legs of the cabinet are exquisitely gilded, featuring a uniform palmette pattern with a prominent acanthus centerpiece, directly referencing ancient Greek culture. Luxurious Marble Top: The cabinet is magnificently topped with a distinguished marble slab, likely Portor marble, which adds a layer of sophistication and classical grandeur. Functional Design: Beyond its decorative splendor, the cabinet offers practical utility, consisting of three internal shelves and a discreet drawer above, providing ample storage for cherished objects. Historical Significance and Decorative Impact: This Alexander Roux cabinet is an innovative combination of antique style motifs, showcasing the designer's mastery in blending diverse classical inspirations into a cohesive and opulent aesthetic. Its impeccable craftsmanship, harmonious proportions, and lavish ornamentation make it a truly exceptional piece of furniture. This cabinet would be a valuable addition to any discerning collection of decorative arts, serving as a captivating focal point and adding a profound touch of historical elegance and refined luxury to any interior.
