Description

High Console or Sideboard in solid Blond Walnut, Louis Philippe period. It opens in the belt by a central drawer 7 cm deep with a pendant in ornate wood. Its top, in pretty shades of Blond, is molded around its edge. The set rests on four legs, the upper part of which is turned, shaped 'in coils', while the lower part is more sober. They are connected at mid-height by a spacer plate that can serve as a reception shelf. Each of these uprights is finished with a blackened ball foot, reminiscent of the Napoleon III era and giving a subtle particularity to this relatively atypical piece of furniture. We will appreciate the dimensions as well as the Lightness of this Narrow and Purified Sideboard. In addition, the beautiful Light color of its Walnut will allow it to blend in both classic and more contemporary interiors. *****
