

Happiness Of The Day Napoleon III Period

2 500 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Length : bas 74cm/haut 72,5cm

Height : 142cm(bas 75cm/haut 67cm)

Depth : bas 49,5cm/haut 26cm

Description

superb happiness of the day from the Napoleon III period two bodies in blackened wood, opening with a frieze drawer and a flap on the top covered with felt and decorated with a gilded brass marquetry with floral motifs and interlacing, resting on 4 tapered and fluted legs decorated with gilded bronze motifs and finished with brass shoes, joined by a spacer decorated in its center with a gilded bronze spinning top, the upper part decorated with 2 drawers, 2 glass doors and a shelf, high crosspiece in gilt brass marquetry, mahogany interior, richly decorated with motifs, gilt bronze fillets, friezes and rods, rare model, in very good condition, note a slight crack in the felt, functional key and locks, top and bottom closing system for the lock of the glazed part

Dealer

Artdecor

antiquités 18eme,19eme siècle

Mobile : 06 03 69 50 55

1 rue des centaurees

Saint-Gilles 30800