Description

Pair of finely chiseled gilt bronze three-light wall sconces, with royalist decoration of the profile portrait of Louis XIV and his wife Marie Thérèse of Austria, at the top a medallion with the Arms of France (3 fleur-de-lys) surrounded by trophies, standards and warrior attributes, as well as heads of putti, foliage and a mascarón at the bottom, from the 19th century. These sconces are in good condition and are very decorative. A note: missing the cup under the central light of the wall lamp with the woman, some dirt and wear of time, see photos.
