Description

Charming Louis XVI dressing table in solid walnut. Very sober provincial furniture in carved walnut wood. Our table dates from the very beginning of Louis XVI with legs still Louis XV in their sinuosity but with fluted sculptures typically Louis XVI. It opens with a central flap with mercury mirror and two butterfly flaps on the sides. On the front, two drawers and a leather-covered shelf. Beautiful patina of the wood. The central flap has played a little with time and is very slightly deformed when closed but cannot be seen once opened. Eighteenth century period around 1775. Price firm and non-negotiable. Delivery by carrier on a pallet in a wooden box, 200 euros in France, 500 euros in the EU and 1000 euros rest of the world.
