Description

This altar ramp is from the end of the 19th or the beginning of the 20th century, and is in bronze.

Neo-Gothic style with cathedral decorations, it has five lights to recall the five wounds of Christ which can also be found on the altar stones.

The tripod foot on which this railing rests reminds us of the Trinity on which the Church is built.

Dimensions of 51 cm high by 51 long and 14 cm deep.
