Description

Lovely suite of 12 tea or coffee spoons in Louis XVI style vermeil. A handle embellished with a skilful work of foliage motifs, flowers and acanthus leaves. At the back, at the junction with the handle, the spatula is very finely chiseled with a pattern that is also leafy. The richness of this set lies in the fact that the abundant chiseled decoration is double-sided, that is to say identical on the face and the reverse of the spatula. A very beautiful work of this famous great Parisian goldsmith! Hallmark 1st title and hallmark of the master goldsmith in a diamond "R a clover D" (1891/1912 Ravinet Louis and Denfert Charles). Spoon length: 12.8 cm Overall weight: 275 g Very good condition. Slight usual marks of use, micro-scratches. Many other objects to discover in my stand of the Salons in which I participate.
