Description

Unique mid-century Murano Sommerso glass bowl from the world famous workshops in Italy of the period circa 1960/70. This very modern looking pentagonal glass bowl is reminiscent of a star or starfish when looking down from above. Wonderful details like the fantastically shaped ends or the unique coloring in blue and green tones make this beautiful Murano glass bowl a great eye-catcher. A very decorative piece of glass art that could be combined with many different interior styles.
