Description

Bronze sculpture from the end of the 19th century or the beginning of the 20th century representing a high dignitary or Chinese mandarin wearing a ru yi. Emblem of power and command, the scepter or ru yi was carried by high dignitaries or ministers of the imperial court. Very beautiful sculpture both for the finesse of the lines and for the patina. Very good general condition for this piece of good size, height 25 cm. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world.
