Description

Secrétaire in rosewood veneer surmounted by a marble "Sainte Anne des Pyrénées", grooved, and period. This unique piece of furniture opens with a flap, a drawer in the upper part and three identical ones in the lower part. Each is provided with an original functional lock, a chiselled bronze entrance and a posterior key. The facades, in rosewood veneer arranged in a fan, are embellished with green-tinted wood fillets, boxwood and mahogany surrounds. The sides, in the same spirit, have two panels surrounded by stained wooden nets. The flap opens onto a storage space made up of four small drawers and a niche, topped with two compartments and furnished with a mirror. The writing part offers red leather, with golden vignette and cold edging. This flap is held by iron hooks and brass plates.
