Touraine, he also traveled throughout France and painted views of the Midi and the Côte d'Azur, the region of Crozant and Fresselines. The term "school of Crozant" appeared in 1864; it is a generic term, no master having ever taught in the Creuse valleys. Similarly, the term "Barbizon school" was created in 1891. This designation is used to describe a succession of painters who came to paint or even settled in Crozant between the 1860s and until the middle of the 20th century.
