Description

Cellar or cigar box from the 19th century Charles X, Louis Philippe in neo-Gothic or troubadour style. Very nice very rare object and in excellent original condition. The 19th century neo-Gothic style marks a return to the taste of the Middle Ages, in particular with one of its leaders, Violet Le Duc, who inspired all the very pleasant and quite rare furniture. Note the curtain closure system in excellent condition and the large number of support trays. Temple shape with upper gallery directly inspired by architectural forms. Shipping possible in France and worldwide.
