Jean Louis Bezard (1799-1881) (attr.à), The Flight Into Egypt, Oil On Canvas

550 EUR

Signature : Attribué à Jean Louis Bezard

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 24,5

Height : 19

Description

Jean-Louis Bezard (Toulouse 1799-Paris 1881) (attributed to)The Flight into Egypt or Holy Family sketchOil on canvas19 x 24.5 cmSigned lower right: BezardListed as religious painter and painter of history, Jean-Louis Bézard was a pupil of Picot and Guérin. He won the prestigious Prix de Rome in 1829 with his painting Jacob refusing to deliver Benjamin. After his stay in Rome, Louis Philippe commissioned a series of paintings from him to decorate the French History Museum in Versailles. He also decorated many buildings such as the dome of the Saint Augustin Church in Paris or the Saint-Caprais cathedral in Agen.golden frame, to clean

Dealer

Bailliet Antiquités
Painting-Drawing-Frame
Tel : 06 18 78 28 60

Lyon 69000