Description

Iranian wool rug, wool warp and weft, circa 1950-60. Good condition.

Warm and abraded colors for this lory with geometric patterns and an interesting dozar format due to its width. Nine black hexagons contrast with the orange-red carpet. Zoomorphs and stars of Medes (eight-pointed stars).

Comfortable, strong and durable mat.

Abrache: term designating a variation of tones in the same color.

Located to the west and further south in Fars, the Lur people consist of a semi-nomadic population. The sizes of the most common carpets range from the dozar (approximately 2 m²) to the kellé (approximately 1.50 x 3.50m). Geometric designs may recall Caucasian rugs. These are warm and
