

Pair Of Cloisonne Enamel Vases. Japan Meiji Period.

650 EUR

Signature : meiji
Period : 19th century
Condition : Bon état
Material : Cloisonne
Height : 125mm

Description

Pair of small vases in cloisonné enamel on gilded copper. A beautiful identical landscape is represented on each vase, fish, rivers, birds and flowers on a background of a luminous blue sky. The partitions are in silver, the base is in gilded copper. The gilding is now almost completely gone, except on the base. They are both in perfect condition, which for a pair is rare. Height 125mm. Japanese work from the end of the 19th century.
