Description

Art Deco sideboard with glazed space, entirely designed in Mahogany, with the exception of its top. This one, set back, is a large Brocatelle Marble 3 cm thick, predominantly Black and Gray, nuanced with Cream. It rests on a wooden top with rounded edges and miter cuts. This piece of furniture opens with a central door, with bevelled frame and glass. The latter is maintained by a chrome surround, and it leaves visible an interior lined with two glass shelves and a mirror background. On either side, this sideboard consists of two large mahogany doors with chrome handles. They are embellished in the upper parts with Generous friezes Sculpted with Fruits, Leaves and Scrolls. Each of these doors reveals a storage space equipped with two shelves in solid Mahogany, placed on racks and therefore
