Description

1950s light table in the style of Jacques Avoinet and Jean Simon Labret in excellent original condition. Very interesting piece of furniture combining the creation of a work of art with the functionality of a coffee table or side table with its undeniable decorative side. Original electrification in good working order. A rare piece using pieces of colored crystals, this table was intended by its creator to be scalable because it is possible to modify the table created by the arrangement of the glass paste pieces as desired. Possibility of sending in France and all over the world.
