Description

Set of two Chalices in Silver Metal with Arms of Light. Each of these Candlesticks consists of a Central Cup, summing a Generously but Finely Molded Shaft. The latter ends with a circular base. On either side, two eccentric Candlesticks, with Sockets and Bobèches with curved edges, complete these Atypical Decorative Objects. The bases bear the hallmarks '18', indicating the quantity of silver used for the manufacture of these candlesticks. We can specify, for comparison, that 18 grams is the weight necessary to make 12 teaspoons. A second hallmark, most likely representing a Tree, is the maker's signature. It should also be noted that these Objects are completely removable, to facilitate their cleaning. These Goldsmith's Pieces, with Pretty Copper reflections, are
