

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

---

Louis XV Style Inkstand, Lacquer And Gilt Bronze, By Maison Millet In Paris, Circa 1880

960 EUR

Signature : Maison Millet

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Length : 21

Width : 21

Height : 14

| Description |
|-------------|
|-------------|

Louis XV style inkstand
Maison Millet Paris, circa 1880

-----

Lacquer tray with Chinese decoration
Two inkwells with bronze cups
Very beautiful gilt bronze mount

-----

21 x 21 x 14 cm [W x D x H]

Wear to the lacquer top

Wear to the gilding

Scales on the varnish

-----

The bronze frame is marked with the initials MB for Blaise Millet, founder of the Maison Millet in 1857.

Specializing in Louis XV and Louis XVI style furniture, the Maison Millet quickly acquired a

| Dealer |
|--------|
|--------|

Thuriot Antiquaire

Passeur de patrimoine depuis 2005

Tel : 0041275588025

Mobile : 0041788665110

Rue du Grand-Pont 6

Sion 1950

solid reputation, rewarded at the Universal Exhibitions in London and Paris. Maison Millet was one of François Linke's suppliers; we also find the name of Linke on certain inkstands like ours. Millet's art objects were also sold by the Escalier de Cristal, of which there may still be, on the back of our tray, the negative of the label.