Description

Beautiful pair of teak footstools, design by Søren Hansen, produced by Fritz Hansen. They can also be used as occasional stools. Each composed of 4 feet, terminated by a domed widening and connected to each other by 4 crosspieces. The seats are offset from the feet and rest on the longest crosspieces. Work from the 1960s.

Marked below on the crosspieces: FH MADE IN DENMARK and DANISH

FURNITUREMAKER'S CONTROL sticker.

Completely restored, strapped and reupholstered with heather blue fabric. I point out that the tops of the legs of a footrest have been damaged (dog bites) and have been restored (restoration visible, additional photos on request).
