Description

Pendulum with columns in ebonized wood and marquetry, decorated with flowers and floral arabesques, framed by brass fillets, dial with Roman numerals signed Ridet à Granville, shell-shaped pendulum decorated with a woman's mascaron, Napoleon III 19th century period. This clock is in good general condition, in its own juice. The movement is also signed, it works, we have its key and pendulum. A note: defects on the side of the base on the right side (see red arrows), dirt on the wood and the marquetry (will need to be cleaned), the numbers on the dial are a little erased, wear of time, look at the photos carefully. Diameter: dial (without gold) 9.5 cm Height: 47 cm Width: base 24 cm Depth: 14.5 cm All the photos are on: www.antiques-delaval.com
