Description

Pair of so-called 'Bridge' armchairs in rosewood varnished with a stamp from the beginning of the 20th century. The backrests, slightly inclined, as well as the seats, are comfortably upholstered. They are covered with a black and white leatherette. The upholstery and upholstery have been professionally replaced, finished in silver Clous on the rear of the backrests. The armrests, characteristic of the 'Bridge' spirit, are openwork and refined, making it easy to place your forearms on them. The armchairs rest on two slightly curved legs at the back and two straight legs at the front. Dimensions: Seat: Height: 46 cm Length: 51 cm
