Description

Very nice alcove cartel in gilded bronze with bell on demand, also alarm clock.
The very beautiful white enamel dial with Roman numerals in blue for the hours and black for the minutes in Arabic numerals has two beautiful pierced and gilded hands which are placed in front of the numbered brass circle used for the alarm clock.
The strike-on-demand and alarm clock movement is housed in a gilt bronze box. It is made up of curves and counter-curves with asymmetrical foliage and fruits emerging from a set of foliage.
The grids of the timepiece are perforated and cut out with leaves and flowers.
The original movement is engraved on the rear plate Paillard in Paris (Paillard Jean Baptiste master in 1717) Louis XV period.
