Description

Chinese wool rug, cotton warp and weft, circa 1970. Good condition.

Chinese carpet of interesting size where we find traditional patterns including the "S". The color yellow, in Chinese culture, is the symbol of the earth. This color represents glory, wisdom, harmony, happiness, culture. Yellow was reserved for the emperor, it was the color of royalty.
The "S" originally represents a two-headed dragon that could be observed on ancient Persian, Chinese and Celtic bronzes. Beautiful typical navy blue border. Blue is not a primary color in China. It is considered a shade of green. It represents purity, freshness and melancholy. Associated with green and black, blue has a
